OUR HISTORY

MORE THAN 150 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

We have to go back to 1871. The new expansion of the city was emerging after the demolition of the city walls, and on the corner of Peñaflores 10 and Garibay Streets stood the recently built 'Grand Hôtel de Londres', owned by our founder Edouard Dupouy. This is the first reference to this establishment in its original location before reaching Paseo de La Concha. This would be in 1902, when M. Dupouy would buy the 'Hotel de Inglaterra' and would combine both in a singular mansion giving rise to the emblematic 'Hotel de Londres y de Inglaterra'. Since then, we have been proud hosts of one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Kings, Queens, Princes, Princesses, artists and even spies have passed through our rooms; leaving an indelible mark and making us part of the history of our city. Likewise, over the years, we have renovated our walls, lounges, attics, owners... preserving the shine of the Belle Époque as well as an exquisite service. The hotel is formed by a team with a great preparation and years of experience, offering a personal and friendly service to our guests. Welcome to Hotel de Londres y de Inglaterra in San Sebastian.

THE BUILDING

BELLE ÉPOQUE TASTE AND ELEGANCE

The Concha building to which the hotel was moved was similar to the current one, but much smaller. The main entrance was on Calle Zubieta and the chamfered area of Concha-Avenida and Zubieta had three façades. But in 1915, due to the urban planning need to connect the San Martín neighbourhood with Amara, the building underwent a major renovation that is still in place today. Two more floors were built, the interior was renovated, the services were improved, the kitchens were modernised... and the iconic small cupola or dome was built on the roof.

In 1919, coinciding with the purchase of the hotel by the Urbistondo family, our current owners, San Sebastian was a spa and tourist centre of the first magnitude. For this reason, the two adjoining villas were acquired to enlarge the hotel, which, presided over by good taste, was on a par with the great international 'palaces' and reinforced the prestige it had acquired. And finally, in 2011, the 7th floor was built, known as the seventh heaven, with 12 penthouses with spectacular views of the bay, increasing the number of rooms to 166.
